The Kendleshire Wedding Pack - your guide to your perfect day.

The Kendleshire

- Function Rooms & Facilities -

The Clubhouse at The Kendleshire is a modern and comfortable venue. We have several function suites across the building, each with their own character and style.

Most of the first floor is occupied by The Badminton Suite - our showpiece function space. Quite unique in the area for having its own bar, dance floor and banqueting area within the one space, The Badminton Suite makes full use of its south-facing position to provide stunning views across the golf course. A central bay window - perfect for your wedding cake and photos - and floor-to-ceiling windows mean that the room is flooded with natural light. This room is suitable for up to 120 guests in a Ceremony, up to 120 guests in banquet mode, and an evening reception for up to 225 guests.

Adjoining the Badminton Suite is the Henfield Room, our main Ceremony room and suitable for up to 70 guests. At other times this room is ideal as a comfortable lounge area or childrens' room during your evening party.

All Civil Wedding Packages include use of the Lakeside Suite, located behind the Badminton Suite's bar. Past couples have found that this suite is ideal for them and their close family to use as a sanctuary throughout the day, with its own soft seating area, balcony and bathroom facilities.

On the ground floor, the Garden Room and adjacent Wedding Garden provide the idyllic setting for arrival drinks, post-Ceremony drinks and photos. It is also a perfect venue for smaller evening parties - either as a seated banquet for up to 60 guests, or when sharing the adjoining Golfers' Bar a buffet reception for up to 120.

- Getting married at The Kendleshire -

For some it simply must be a Church wedding. However increasingly couples are having their ceremonies conducted in non-secular venues, and for the last nine years we have offered the ability to have Civil Ceremonies & Partnerships in two of our function rooms.

The Henfield Room is the most popular location for such Ceremonies, comfortably hosting up to 60 guests. For larger numbers we can instead use the Badminton Suite.

The full Civil Ceremony Wedding Package includes:

- Exclusive use of the Badminton Suite, Henfield Room & Lakeside Suite for the day.
- Approved ceremony music, directed on the day by a member of the Wedding Team.
- Decorations to the chairs of the Ceremony Room.
- Tailored linen to the ceremony tables.
- Use of our ring cushion.
- Full on-the-day coordination.

The cost for the Civil Ceremony Wedding Package is £1300.00 inc VAT.
